

To know you is to love you (Version 1)

1 / 2

Wolfgang:

An angel must look like this
Desperate, crying – but with pride
Tell me, where are you from?
You fell down right from the stars into my dreams
You seem to know who I am
Cause you can see the real me, trust me when I say
What I feel for you won't fade away

To know you is to love you
You make me feel free
Right from the first look in your eyes, I knew destiny
I'll love you, serve you, bless you
I don't want to possess you
I just want to be with you night and day

Constance:

I hate to be weak like this
You should not see me when I cry
Life taught me long ago
That it is never wise to trust completely
But you're not like the others are
In desperation I can always lean on you
No one cares for me the way you do
To know you is to love you
You make me feel free

Wolfgang:

Thinking of you feels like dreaming

Constance:

Right from the first look in your eyes, I knew destiny

Wolfgang:

To touch you means to dance

Constance:

I'm willing to believe you
And spend a lifetime with you

Wolfgang (same time):

I will always be there for you

Wolfgang and Constance:

I just want you beside me night and day

Constance:

I love you ...

Wolfgang:
I love you ...

Constance:
Until my final day

Wolfgang and Constance:
We're gonna walk our way!

To know you is to love you
You make me feel free
Right from the first look in your eyes, I knew destiny
Please share your future with me
There's nothing you can't give me
Please promise you will be here night and day!
